

The extend of our political sign policy is covered in the City's General Sign Ordinance. There is nothing specific about signs during early voting or on election day. The policy is as follows:

L. Non-commercial signs. Signs advertising or promoting a candidate or proposition in conjunction with an election, or otherwise containing a non-commercial message, provided that:

1. No non-commercial sign shall be erected before forty-five (45) days before the election date on which the office or proposition is to be determined;

2. All such non-commercial signs shall be removed within seven (7) days following the election on which the office or proposition is finally determined in accordance with the Texas Election Code;

3. No such non-commercial sign shall exceed sixteen (16) square feet in total area nor exceed six feet (6') in height above natural ground level; and

4. Such temporary non-commercial sign shall otherwise comply with all provisions of this Ordinance.
