REFERRAL PROCESS

The County District Attorney's (DA) office will evaluate each case individually, making a recommendation based on prosecutorial discretion. The DA reviews all applications submitted by defense attorneys. Next, the DA notifies the defense attorney and DWI Court Officer if the individual meets legal eligibility criteria. Eligible defendants are then scheduled for a clinical assessment/screening with DWI Court Officer to assess the individual's need for treatment and willingness to participate in the program.

Once a client agrees to participate in the DWI Court Program, the case is set for the next DWI Court docket for sentencing. At that time, the client appears before the Judge and is accepted into the program. The client's legal counsel is transferred to the DWI Court Attorney (defense attorney). Offenders will not be eligible if they have ever been charged with or convicted of drug trafficking, sexual offenses, or violent/assaultive offenses. In addition, an offender cannot have a substantial mental health problem that would prohibit their participation in the program.

Eligible offenders must be at least seventeen (17) years of age, have a mind for change, convicted of a subsequent DWI or an offender may qualify for the program after being charged of a first time DWI after proper screening. Others may be admitted with other charges if a Substance Abuse Addiction is identified. The offenders admitted to the DWI Court Program may be admitted through a modification of a current term of Community Supervision or through initial placement from the courts.

Offenders must be willing to actively participate and must be able to meet all program attendance requirements.

WHAT IS DWI COURT?

The DWI Court Program is a comprehensive twelve (12) to twenty four (24) month program that may be extended as needed and will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis. The goals set forth in the DWI Court Program include yet are not limited to community protection, reducing recidivism, saving taxpayers' money, and maintaining an alcohol and drug free lifestyle for the offender through individualized treatment, education, peer support, intense supervision and changing the participants' thinking and behavior.

The mission statement of the Fort Bend County DWI Court is to protect the community by decreasing the recidivism of our participants, thereby saving lives through behavior modification while simultaneously forcing the offenders to take ownership of both their personal problems and their criminal behavior thus breaking the cycle of addiction.
