(B) All motions, exceptions, and pleas shall be in writing and shall have a proposed order attached granting the relief sought.

(C) Failure to present motions, exceptions, and pleas in a timely manner shall cause same to be waived.

(D) A specific date or period of time may be assigned as a final date for the filing of motions, exceptions, and dilatory pleas and obtaining a hearing thereon in those cases, which the Judge deems appropriate.

(E) When counsel for either party or any party pro se, after notice, fails to appear at a pre-trial setting on any motion, exception, or plea, the Court may:

1. Rule on all motions, exceptions, and pleas in the absence of such counsel;
2. Declare any motions, exceptions, or pleas for such absent party waived.
3. In the event absent counsel represents the plaintiff, the Court may decline to set the case for trial or may cancel a setting previously made or may dismiss the claims for want of prosecution, especially where there has been a previous failure to appear or where no amendment has been filed to meet exceptions previously sustained; or
4. In the event absent counsel represents the defendant, the Court, if the case has not been previously set for trial, may set the same for trial pursuant to Texas Rules of Civil Procedure 245 and/or may dismiss any counter-claim or cross-action for want of prosecution.

(F) Preliminary matters which require a hearing by the Court may be disposed of either (1) by hearing before the Court; (2) by hearing before the Associate Judge of the Court or (3) upon such written authorities as counsel may forward to the Court, following which the Court may rule in chambers without a hearing as provided in this Rule.

1. Any party is entitled to a hearing so long as the same is requested prior to the time that the Court makes its ruling as provided in subparagraph 6.
2. Any party who desires a ruling on any matter pending shall request a ruling either by (a) requesting a hearing; or (b) filing a statement with the authorities and a statement of any relief thereupon, along with a request for ruling by submission without a hearing. Notice to be by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested.
3. The opposing party may, within ten (10) days after service of such statement, either (a) request a hearing; or (b) file a written response.
4. A requesting party shall state the estimated time required for the hearing.
5. It is the responsibility of the party requesting a ruling by submission to notify the Court of the date of service of such statement for calculation of submission dates.
6. If no hearing is requested within seven (7) days after the time for requesting a hearing or for filing a response has expired, the Judge, in the absence of counsel, shall examine the pleadings, authorities cited, and other papers and make such rulings as the Judge deems proper, note a memorandum of such ruling among the papers of the cause and provide copies of such memorandum to counsel for all parties. Copies of all orders signed pursuant to this paragraph shall be forwarded to all counsel by the Court Coordinator at the time they are entered.

(G) Before a motion, exception, or other dilatory plea will be heard, the moving party shall first talk with counsel to determine whether there is opposition.

(B) When counsel for either party, after notice, fails to appear or is unprepared for a scheduling conference or pre-trial conference, the Court may:

1. Make all scheduling decisions and rule on all motions, exceptions, pleas, or other matters;
2. Declare any pending motions, exceptions, or pleas waived;
3. Advance or delay the trial setting consistent with Texas Rules of Civil Procedure 245, alter other scheduling matters, decline to set the case for trial or cancel a setting previously made, or take such other action that is just and proper according to the convenience of counsel present and parties represented;
4. Pass and reset the conference, in which case the party attending the conference shall be entitled to recover his reasonable attorney's fees and expenses.
5. Consider the absence of "attorney in charge" as a contempt of court, and punish counsel accordingly.

(C) Counsel at pre-trial shall either be the attorney who expects to try the case, or shall be familiar with the case and be fully authorized to state his party's position on the law and facts, make stipulations and enter into settlement negotiations as trial counsel. If the Court finds counsel is not qualified, the Court may take any of the procedures provided above.

RULE 6.11

Filings/Return of Information

Assignment of Cases after Information

The following rules shall govern the assignment of misdemeanor cases and other matters within the jurisdiction of the County Courts at Law in Fort Bend County, Texas:

(A) All misdemeanor proceedings presented to the County Clerk for filing shall be assigned by the County Clerk on a random basis to the County Courts at Law by means of a blind filing process which provides for the equal distribution of new cases in such a manner that it cannot be determined to which court a case will be assigned until after said court assignment. Except as otherwise provided in these Rules, the County Clerk shall randomly assign every criminal case filed by information in a fair and equitable manner among the County Courts at Law.

(B) After refiling and docketing of misdemeanor information into the County Courts at Law, the County Clerk will determine by research [based upon information provided by the District Attorney at the time of filing the information] whether the defendant named in the misdemeanor information has a prior connection too an existing case in any of the County Courts at Law. Such prior connection is defined as: (1) defendant has been accorded misdemeanor probation in one of the County Courts at Law and the probation has not been revoked or been terminated; (2) defendant has prior pending misdemeanor charges in one of the County Courts at Law; (3) the charge arose from the same criminal transaction which was the basis of the misdemeanor information previously filed in one of the County Courts at Law; (4) the defendant has been accorded deferred adjudication in one of the County Courts at Law and the deferred adjudication has not been terminated or adjudicated; (5) the defendant has been granted a restricted driver's license in one of the County Courts at Law and is charged with a subsequent DWI or DWLS; or (6) a case wherein the defendant has not discharged his sentence. If the County Clerk's research indicates one of the above prior connections, the new misdemeanor case filing will be transferred to the court where the defendant has such prior connection.

All refiles of cases already pending shall be filed and docketed in accordance with statutory rotation. The County Clerk is then authorized to transfer and set the refiled case in the court where the initial misdemeanor information is or was pending. The setting date assigned to the refiled case will be the same date as the initial pending case. All writs of habeas corpus, contempts, writs of procedendo and ex parte matters shall be filed and docketed in accordance with statutory rotation. The County Clerk is then authorized to transfer the proceedings in the courts where prior case connection exists, or if no prior case connection exists, to transfer the proceeding to the court wherein the hearing on such proceeding is to be conducted. Unless said cases are later transferred by agreement of the Judges or are transferred by authority of a separate order, all such assigned cases shall remain on the docket of the court of assignment until final disposition.

The Fort Bend County Clerk shall not effect any changes in the matters of random filing, numbering of cases, docketing of cases, transfer of cases, or assignment of settings, or any other matters that affect the distribution of work or the dispatch of the business of the Fort Bend County Courts at Law unless so directed to do so by the Judges of the County Courts at Law.

(C) Upon filing and docketing of misdemeanor information into the County Courts at Law of Fort Bend County, Texas, the County Clerk will determine by research whether the defendant named in the misdemeanor information has a prior connection in any of the County Courts at Law, in accordance with the criteria established in Rule 6.11.

(D) All refiles and cases already pending or dismissed shall be filed and docketed in accordance with statutory rotation. The County Clerk is then authorized to transfer and set the refiled case in the court where the initial misdemeanor information is or was pending. The setting date assigned to the refiled case will be the same date as the initial case, if the initial case is still pending. If the initial case is not still pending, the refiled case shall be given an appropriate setting in accordance with these Rules. All writs of habeas corpus, contempts and ex parte matters shall be filed and docketed in accordance with statutory rotation. The County Clerk is then authorized to transfer and set the proceedings in the court where prior case connection already exists or if no prior case connection exists, to transfer the proceeding to the court wherein the hearing on such proceedings is to be conducted.

(E) When it has been determined that a case is to be transferred from one court to another court, the Judge of the sending court shall prepare a letter of transfer to the County Clerk specifying the case and the court that the case is to be transferred. Said letter of transfer shall be approved by the Judge of the sending court and of the receiving court.

(F) After the docket entry is completed, the Coordinator of the sending court will prepare a transfer order, obtain the Judge's signature and cause the signed order and court case file to be timely delivered to the Coordinator of the receiving court. The Coordinator of the receiving court will obtain the Judge's signature on the transfer order. At that time the Coordinator will set the case in the receiving court and complete all setting information on the bottom of the transfer order.

RULE 6.12

Arraignment/Initial Appearance

(A) Initial Settings

The County Clerk of Fort Bend County, Texas, in accordance with the following procedure, is directed to provide the first setting on all misdemeanor information and certain other processes filed and docketed into the County Courts at Law of Fort Bend County, Texas, and to record same in the automated system.

4. The reset order may give notice to the defendant and his counsel of a pre-trial date and a probable date for trial and of a deadline to file pre-trial motions.
5. Since the Fort Bend County District Attorney's Office does not have a twenty-four (24) intake section to process persons charged with misdemeanor offences being held in the County Jail and since the Fort Bend County Clerk's Office does not have a deputy clerk assigned twenty-four (24) hours per day at the Fort Bend County Jail, the Fort Bend County Sheriff's Office shall randomly designate a trial court for defendants who are charged with misdemeanor offenses and bond out of jail prior to charges filed and a court designed by the County Clerk's Office. (G) If the case is disposed of by a plea of guilty, the application must be submitted to the Court at the time of the plea; otherwise, the application must be submitted within sixty (60) days of the case being disposed of, unless waived by the Court and award of attorney's fees noted on docket sheet by the Court.

(H) Failure to timely submit the application may constitute a waiver of compensation.

(I) If the Court determines that a defendant has financial resources that enable him to offset in part or in whole the costs of the legal services provided, including any expenses or costs, the Court shall order the defendant to pay the amount that it finds the defendant is able to pay.

(J) If at the time of appointment of counsel the Court finds that the defendant is non-indigent, the Court may order the defendant to periodically deposit into a "prepayment of attorney's fees and costs" account administered by the County Clerk an estimated amount of such fees and costs in advance of the disposition of his case; any payment in excess of the amount actually ordered by the Court for such fees and costs will be refunded to the defendant.

(K) Expenses for purpose of foreign language interpreter, investigation, expert testimony and psychological evaluation and other expenses must receive prior Court approval. (M) Expert testimony must include itemized billing for services rendered after prior approval has been obtained.

(N) Counsel appointed to represent indigent defendants shall represent the defendant until the charges are disposed of, whether by conviction, acquittal or dismissal, or until the right of appeal is exhausted or the attorney is relieved of his duties by the Court or replaced by other counsel.

(O) Counsel must make initial contact with the defendant in custody within twenty-four hours of the appointment.

(P) Counsel may be removed from the Fort Bend County Indigent Defense Appointment list by agreement of the Board of County Court at Law Judges, for falsifying attorney's fees and expenses, misrepresentation of a client, failure to appear at docket settings and for conduct deemed unprofessional and/or unethical by the Judges.

(B) Each Court may set bail in alternative amounts; for example, the Court may order one amount for the posting of a surety bail bond and another amount for the posting of a cash bond, provided that the amount of the cash bond is not more than ten percent (10%) of the amount required for a surety bail bond.

(D) At all other times, defendants booked into the County Jail on any and all process pending in or issued out of the County Courts at Law, shall be brought immediately before a magistrate who shall determine if probable cause exists for the continued detention of the defendant.

RULE 6.22

Any discovery motion outside the pre-approved standard Court Discovery Motion must be made in writing and scheduled with the Court thirty (30) days before trial. Notice of the motion and hearing date must be provided to the Fort Bend County District Attorney's Office in accordance with legal standards.

RULE 6.23

(A) Each Court shall determine its own settings for pre-trial and trial. The District Attorney's Office or counsel for defendant may request settings for pre-trial hearings.

(B) The defendant shall appear at each scheduled pre-trial hearing, unless he waives his pre-trial hearing by executing a waiver of pre-trial hearing; however, if the State filed pre-trial motions, the defendant shall appear.

(C) All pre-trial motions, including motions in limine, must be filed by the set deadline, unless an extension of time is granted by the Court for good cause shown.

(D) Each pre-trial motion must succinctly state the relief sought, the facts pertinent to the motion, and supporting argument with authorities; must be signed by counsel and, where required by the defendant; must be sworn to when required; must contain a certificate of service and consultation with opposing counsel and a statement that the matter raised in the motion was not resolved or, if no consultation was accomplished, an explanation thereof; must contain a notice that the motion will be presented to the Court at the pre-trial hearing with or without evidence; and must contain a proposed order granting or denying the motion in full or in part.

(E) The Court may refuse to consider any pre-trial motion that fails to comply with these Rules.

(F) The waiver of pre-trial hearing shall contain a declaration by the defendant and his attorney that no motions have been or will be thereafter filed, or that any motions previously filed are withdrawn or waived and that no necessity for a pre-trial hearing exists, and that the defendant is ready for trial.

(G) Motions for continuance, whether by the State or the defendant, must comply with Chapter 29, Texas Code of Criminal Procedure and must be presented to and considered by the Court on or before the Friday before the scheduled trial date.

(H) Except for good cause shown and upon compliance with these Rules, the Court shall not consider any motion for continuance on the scheduled trial date.

2. The Clerk shall have no duty to present the motion to the Court.
3. A motion for continuance that avers conflicting settings shall have attached to it as exhibits proof of such conflict, including dates of notice of the other settings.
4. Failure to attach proof of conflicting settings shall authorize the Court to summarily deny the motion.
5. The mere filing of a motion for continuance shall not authorize the absence of counsel or of the defendant at the scheduled setting.
6. Failure of counsel or the defendant to appear shall authorize the Court to render the appropriate orders.
7. The defendant must consent in writing to a motion for continuance filed by his attorney of record. Failure to contain such written consent shall authorize the Court to summarily deny the motion.

(I) If a court-appointed interpreter is necessary, the attorney for the defendant shall request same in writing at the pre-trial hearing or earlier.

(A) Bond Reinstatement

When a case is again active because of the reinstatement of a bond, either with or without cost, the Court Coordinator shall enter a seven (7) day setting except when, for some reason, a setting already exists in the system, in which case the date in the system shall remain.

(B) Bench Warrants and Attachments

Such documents shall have a setting date in the body of the document and the Court Coordinator shall set accordingly.

(C) Summons in Lieu of Capias

When a misdemeanor information is taken against a corporation in, for example, a pollution case, the process issued shall be a summons rather than a capias and the summons shall require that the corporation make an appearance at 8:30 A.M. on the first Friday next following the expiration of twenty days from the date of service, unless the Court orders a specific date for appearance.

When a summons is used against a defendant in lieu of a capias in a misdemeanor information that is a refile of an earlier filed misdemeanor information, the appearance date on the newly filed case shall be set the same day as the earlier filed case except when the earlier filed case has no setting. In that event, then both cases shall be set at 8:30 A.M. on the first Friday next following the expiration of seven (7) days from the receipt of service, unless the Court orders a specific date for appearance and the setting in the refiled case shall be for arraignment.

(D) Mandate of Abatement

Immediately upon receipt of the information from the Clerk, the Court Coordinator shall notify the attorney of record on appeal, the surety on appeal bond, if one exists, and the appellant by regular mail.

RULE 6.26

The County Clerk shall endorse the amount of bail upon the papers of the case in accordance with the bail schedule provided by these Rules. (C) Where the defendant is in custody the de novo appeal shall be set for arraignment on the next date the court is in session.

Filing and Attraction of Municipal Court and Justice Court Appeals

Two types of municipal appeals, referred to in the system as MAP's, are distinguished:

City Municipal Appeals and All Others Including Justice and Non-Record Municipal Cases

1. City Municipal Appeal are filed into the County Courts on a rotation basis and are not attached to an already pending misdemeanor nor do such cases attract other misdemeanors.
2. All Others are trial de novo cases and are attached to other misdemeanors already pending against the same person and, likewise, attract other misdemeanors when pending. These cases are simply new County Court cases.

Each category attracts additional MAPs in its own category. For example, an appellee/defendant having a City Municipal Appeal pending and who appeals another City case will have the newer appeal filed into the court where the current appeal is pending.

An appellee/defendant having any other municipal or JP appeal pending and who appeals another non-city case will have the newer appeal filed into the court where the current appeal is pending.

If the defendant is in jail, the filing of the motion to dismiss, the order granting said motion and the delivery of a copy of the order shall be expedited in order to affect the immediate release of the defendant from custody, if the defendant has no other charges pending against him.

(D) Upon acquittal of the defendant, the Court Coordinator shall prepare the appropriate judgment for approval of the Court. If the defendant is in jail, the defendant shall be released from custody immediately after his administrative discharge from the jail, but in no event later than the same day of acquittal, if no other charges or holds are pending against him.

(E) Upon disposition of the cause, the Court Coordinator of the court shall deliver a copy of the final judgment or order to all counsel of record.

(F) If the Court's ruling on a pre-trial motion or trial motion has the effect of causing the dismissal of the cause, such as the suppression of all incriminating evidence or the quashing of an information, counsel for defendant shall submit a proposed order granting the motion, and if the defendant is in jail, he shall be discharged immediately if an order of dismissal is signed by the Court and if there are no other charges pending against him.

(G) If the State certifies that the State will appeal said ruling or order or will seek the re-indictment of the defendant, the Court shall not sign an order of dismissal unless the defendant shows that no appeal is timely taken by the State as required by Article 44.01(d), Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, or that there was no re-indictment of the defendant within thirty (30) days of the ruling of the Court.

(H) Further, if the defendant is on bail, he shall remain at large on the existing bail bond, if the defendant is in custody, he is entitled to reasonable bail, unless the appeal is from an order which would terminate the prosecution, in which event the defendant is entitled to release on personal bond, see Article 44.01, Texas Code of Criminal Procedure.

When a party electronically files an application that seeks to probate a lost will or a will not produced in court, a copy of the document purporting to represent the contents of such lost will shall be filed electronically along with the application to probate such will and a hard copy of such document purporting to represent the contents of the lost will shall be filed with the Clerk within three business days after the application is filed. The Court will allow the applicant to schedule a hearing only after a hard copy of such document purporting to represent the contents of such lost will has been filed with the Clerk.

RULE 7.19

Filing Applications to Probate a Copy of a Lost Will or a Lost Will without a Copy

(A) The fact that a copy of a lost will or a lost will without a copy is being offered for probate must be included in the title of the title of the application.

(B) The Court may appoint an attorney ad litem under Texas Estates Code §53.104 to represent the interests of testator's unknown heirs or heirs having a legal disability, if a full or partial intestacy will result if the lost will is not admitted to probate. If an attorney ad litem needs to be appointed:

1. The applicant may be required to deposit funds toward the services of the attorney ad litem.
2. The applicant must provide the Clerk with copies of the application and the will to be sent to the attorney ad litem.

(C) The Clerk must attach to each citation issued under Texas Estates Code §258.002 the "Notice of Application to Probate Copy of Lost Will or Codicil or Lost Will or Codicil without a Copy" in the same form provided for under this Rule, informing all persons interested in the estate of their right to object to the probate.

(D) All persons who are named as devisees in the lost will must be personally served with citation under §258.002 or must execute an affidavit waiving citation.

(E) All persons who would inherit as an heir of the testator if the lost will is not admitted to probate must be personally served with citation under §258.002 or must execute an affidavit waiving citation. If the lost will is a codicil to an original will, the beneficiaries of the testator's original will – instead of the testator's heirs – must be personally served with citation under §258.002 or must execute an affidavit waiving citation.

(F) When an heir or a devisee executes an affidavit waiving citation, the affidavit itself must explicitly include all of the points addressed in the "Notice of Application to Probate Copy of Lost Will or Codicil or Lost Will or Codicil without a Copy" which can be found on the Court's website.

(G) Form language for Notice of Application to Probate Copy of Lost Will or Codicil or Lost Will or Codicil without a Copy:

You are notified that an application has been filed in this Decedent's estate to probate a written will or codicil even though the applicant cannot produce the original will. The application filed in this estate seeks either to probate a copy of a lost will or codicil or to probate a lost will or codicil without a copy (all referred to below as "lost will").

When an original will cannot be produced, the law presumes that the testator (the person who wrote the will) revoked the will before the testator's death. The Court will not grant the application in this case unless the applicant offers sufficient evidence to rebut that presumption and proves to the Court that the will was not revoked, even though only a copy has been filed.

If no will is admitted to probate, Decedent's property will pass to Decedent's heirs. If a lost codicil to a valid original will is not admitted to probate, Decedent's property will pass to the devisees (beneficiaries) named in the valid will. Therefore, your rights to inherit property may be affected by the probate of the lost will either (1) as an heir of the Decedent, or (2) as someone who is named as a devisee in the lost will, or (3) as a devisee in a valid will when there is a lost codicil to that will.

If you want to object to the probate of the lost will, you must file a written objection with the Clerk. The Clerk's citation, which is attached to this notice, indicates the date by which you should file a written objection. Note that the citation does not indicate a specific hearing date.

If you sign an affidavit waiving citation, you are indicating to the Court that you do not object to the probate of the lost will.

You should consult an attorney if you have any questions about your rights in this probate matter.

RULE 7.20

Filing Applications to Probate a Will More than Four Years after the Testator's Death

(A) The fact that a will is being offered for probate more than four years after the testator's death must be included in the title of the application.

(B) The Court may appoint an attorney ad litem under Texas Estates Code §53.104 to represent the interests of testator's unknown heirs or heirs having a legal disability, except when the application indicates that another will of the testator has previously been admitted to probate. If an attorney ad litem is appointed:

1. The applicant may be required to deposit funds toward the services of the attorney ad litem.
2. When an attorney ad litem will be appointed, the applicant must provide the Clerk with copies of the application and the will to be sent to the attorney ad litem.

(C) The Clerk must attach to each citation issued the "Notice of Application to Probate a Will More than Four Years after the Testator's Death" in the same form provided under this Rule.

(D) All persons who would inherit as an heir of the testator if the will is not admitted to probate must either (1) be personally served with citation or (2) deliver to the Court an affidavit waiving citation and indicating that the heir does not object to the offer of the testator's will for probate. If another will of the testator has previously been admitted to probate, all beneficiaries of the testator's probate will – instead of the testator's heirs – must be personally served with citation or must deliver to the Court an affidavit waiving citation and indicating that the beneficiary does not object to the offer of the testator's will for probate.

(E) When an heir or beneficiary executes an affidavit waiving citation and waiving objection, the affidavit itself must explicitly include all of the points addressed in the "Notice of Application to Probate a Will More than Four Years after the Testator's Death" which can be found on the Court's website.

(F) Form language for Notice of Application to Probate a Will More than Four Years after the Decedent's Death:

You are notified of the filing in this Decedent's estate of an application to probate a will or codicil ("will") more than four years after the Decedent died.

You must understand the following:

- (1) The testator's property will pass to the testator's heirs if the will is not admitted to probate. (Or if this will is not admitted to probate, but another will of Decedent was previously admitted to probate, Decedent's property will pass to the beneficiaries in that previously probated will.)
- (2) The person offering the testator's will for probate may not be in default for failing to present the will for probate during the four-year period immediately following the testator's death.

Therefore, the Court will not grant the application in this case unless the applicant offers sufficient evidence to prove that he or she was not in default for failing to probate the will within four years of Decedent's death.

As an heir of the Decedent – or as a beneficiary in Decedent's previously probate will – your rights to inherit property may be affected by the probate of a will more than four years after Decedent's death.

If you want to object to the probate of the will more than four years after the Decedent's death, you need to file a written objection with the Clerk. The Clerk's citation, which is attached to this notice, indicates the date by which you should file a written objection. Note that the citation does not indicate a specific hearing date.

If you sign an affidavit waiving citation, you are indicating to the Court that you do not object to the probate of the will that has been filed by the applicant more than four years after the Decedent died.

You should contact an attorney if you have any questions about your rights in this probate matter.

(B) When a motion to sever is granted, the party who sought the severance shall file the severed claim as a new case and the Clerk shall give the new case a new cause number. A severed claim filed as a new case is subject to all filing fees required by the Clerk.

RULE 7.25

Vacations of Counsel

Counsel may not request a hearing on a date for which counsel has received notice that another party to the case is unavailable. If the Court sets a case for a hearing on a date for which a counsel has planned a vacation, counsel shall notify the Court as soon as the notice of hearing is received and the hearing will be reset for a different date, unless there is a clear showing of abuse or unreasonable delay. If a counsel becomes unavailable for a hearing after receiving a hearing notice, counsel shall immediately notify the Court and all parties and request that the hearing be reset for a different date.

RULE 7.26

Judicial Absences

When a judge anticipates being absent, the judge may request that the Presiding Judge of the Administrative Judicial District assign a visiting judge to the court or use the Associate Judge pursuant to standing orders or specific referrals. (B) Conclusion of Bankruptcy

After a bankruptcy has been concluded, whether by discharge, denial of discharge, an Order lifting the automatic stay so as to permit continuation of the litigation, a dismissal or otherwise, counsel shall notify the Court promptly so the affected case may be restored to the active docket or dismissed as appropriate.

RULE 7.28

Appointment of Attorney or Guardian Ad Litem

(A) The Court may appoint an attorney or guardian ad litem when authorized or required pursuant to the Texas Estates Code or the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

(F) In an appropriate case, an ad litem should consider filing an application for security for costs under Tex. R. Civ. P. 143 and Texas Estates Code §53.052 and 1053.052

(G) In a determination of heirship proceeding, the Court may require the deposit of security for costs for the fees of the attorney ad litem.

(H) All ad litem serve at the pleasure of the Court.

RULE 7.29

Filing Papers

(A) All pleadings, motions, notices, briefs, proposed orders, proposed judgments, and any other paper, document, or thing made a part of the record shall be electronically filed with the Clerk. A pleading should have only one style to ensure pleadings are filed in the correct case.

(B) This subsection applies to the submission of a proposed order or judgment in a case in which parties are entitled to notice or service of pleadings under Tex. R. Civ. P. 21.

(1) If all counsel agree to the form of the proposed order or judgment:

(i) all counsel must sign the order or judgment; and

(ii) the Court may enter the order or judgment immediately on submission.

(2) Absent an agreed order or judgment under subdivision (1) of this subsection:

order or judgment on all other counsel, unless all counsel agree to submit the proposed form and alternative forms of the order or judgment before that date;

- (ii) at the time of submission, the proponent shall certify to the Court that the proposed order or judgment was served on all counsel and describe to the Court the substance of all communications received from all counsel regarding the form of the order or judgment;
 - (iii) a party objecting to the form of the order or judgment must prepare an alternative form of the order or judgment, specifically state the objections to the proponent's order or judgment, serve the alternative form on all counsel, and submit the alternative form to the Court; and
 - (iv) a proposed order or judgment submitted in accordance with this subdivision is subject to being held an additional 10 days before the Court will consider the order or judgment, after which the Court may act without notice to the parties.
- (3) The Court may act at any time without further notice to the parties on a proposed order or judgment submitted in accordance with this subsection. Nothing in this subsection prevents the Court from entering its own form of order or judgment or restricts the Court's ability to enter orders at its discretion.

(C) Counsel may not file an amendment to a pleading later than seven days before the date a case is set for trial. The Court will consider an amended pleading offered for filing later than seven days before the date of trial only as a trial amendment under Tex. R. Civ. P. 66. The amended pleading may be filed only with leave of Court after filing a motion and providing notice to all parties.

(D) Notwithstanding subsection (c), an order sustaining a special exception or taking an action that requires the filing of an amended pleading is considered to grant leave to file the amended pleading not later than 20 days after the date the order is entered unless the order specifies a different deadline.

RULE 7.30

The Setting of Cases

(A) The Court shall promulgate a yearly calendar showing which weeks shall be jury or non-jury.

(B) Non-jury matters may be set and tried in jury weeks subject to the jury docket.

(C) At the Court's discretion and subject to the availability of jury panels, the Court may call to trial a jury matter during a non-jury week.

(D) The Court will set a hearing and place it on the docket on written or oral request of a party unless the Court requires the request to be made in writing. The Court will not sign an order setting a hearing except when:

(1) a show cause order is necessary; or

(2) a rule of law requires that an order for a hearing be signed by the Court.

(E) Temporary guardianship hearings and other matters involving exigent circumstances will take priority over other proceedings.

(F) A request for a non-jury hearing must include an estimate of the hearing time required for the matter being set. Counsel requesting the hearing shall include the time estimate in the notice to the parties.

(G) The Court may establish an uncontested docket procedure. Uncontested matters and routine matters of very short duration may be set on the uncontested docket by calling the Probate Auditor. The uncontested docket consists of, but is not limited to, issuance of letters testamentary, muniment of title actions, issuance of letters of administration, administrative motions, and declarations of heirship.

RULE 7.31

Resolution of Conflicting Settings

When a counsel has settings in more than one court:

- (1) a trial on the merits in any court takes precedence over hearings, motions, and other interlocutory matters in another court;
- (2) all proceedings in any court take precedence over depositions and other out of court activities; and
- (3) an attorney who has a previously scheduled oral argument in an appellate court will be given a reasonable time to travel to and from that court and make argument if the attorney advises the Court of the scheduled argument before trial commences.

RULE 7.32

Disposition of Contested and Ancillary Matters

(A) On its own motion or by agreement of the parties and counsel, the Court will refer a case for resolution by an alternate dispute resolution procedure under Chapter 154, Civil Practice and Remedies Code. A party or counsel may move for such a referral if an agreement cannot be reached.

(B) A pre-trial hearing will not be required in every case. On request of a party or on its own motion, the Court may set a hearing under Tex. R. Civ. P. 166 to consider any matter that might aid in the disposition of the action, including requiring the filing of the Parties Joint Pre-Trial Statement.

(C) The Court may conduct a scheduling conference in any case at the request of a party or on its own motion. If before the date of the scheduling conference the parties provide to the Court an Agreed Scheduling Order, a scheduling conference will be required only if requested by a party or as required by the Court.

(D) When a party believes a case is ready for trial, counsel may request that the case be set for trial by filing a written request with the Probate Auditor. The request may ask for a setting on a specific trial week, but no sooner than 45 days after the date of request, unless leave of Court is obtained or all counsel agree to an earlier setting. The request must be sent to all counsel and/or pro se parties. A party may file a written objection to the request not later than seven days after receiving the request for setting. The objecting party must request a hearing on the objection.

(E) When requesting a trial setting, counsel shall inform the Court of the estimated time for trial. Counsel shall make a good faith estimate of the time required after consulting all parties and considering proper examination of witnesses, introduction of exhibits, and cross-examination and rebuttal of witnesses reasonably anticipated to be called by all parties. If the time requested is not sufficient, the Court may continue the matter as the Court's docket allows. If the Court finds that the counsel requesting the trial setting acted in bad faith in misrepresenting the time required, the Court may impose appropriate sanctions, including attorneys' fees incurred by any delay in trial and costs and expenses for travel of witnesses and parties who are required to return at a later date as a result of the continued setting.

RULE 7.33

Motions for Continuance, Agreed Passes, and Settlements

(A) A trial or hearing date may not be postponed or changed without Court approval.

(B) Except as otherwise provided by this subsection, a motion for continuance must be filed not later than five days before the date of a scheduled hearing. A motion for continuance based on facts occurring on or after the fifth day before the date of a scheduled hearing must be filed as soon as possible and will be heard at a time set by the Court.

(C) If counsel agrees to continue a hearing, the counsel initiating the request for continuance shall notify the Court immediately and the Court will decide whether to grant the continuance. If counsel fails to notify the Court within a reasonable time before the date of the hearing, the Court may impose appropriate sanctions.

(D) If the parties reach a settlement, the counsel representing the party seeking affirmative relief shall notify the Court of the settlement in writing and that the hearing date is no longer needed. If counsel fails to notify the Court within a reasonable time before the date of the hearing, the Court may impose appropriate sanctions.

(E) On receiving notice of a settlement, the Court shall set the matter for dismissal on a date not earlier than 30 days after the date the notice was filed.

RULE 7.34

Pre-Trial

(A) If not otherwise addressed in a Scheduling Order, the Court will conduct a pre-trial conference at least 10 days before the scheduled trial date. At the pre-trial conference, the Court will hear and consider all pending preliminary, pre-trial, and dispositive motions and matters. Before the presentation of any evidence to the jury, the parties shall present to the Court and each other a proposed jury charge for any issue on which the party presenting the charge carries the burden of proof, unless the Court requires the proposed jury charge to be submitted to the Court earlier. The Court reserves the right to require the parties to present their proposed jury charges 10 days before the scheduled trial date.

(B) At the pre-trial conference, counsel is expected to identify for the Court the issues that are disputed and to be familiar with the authorities applicable to the questions of law raised at pre-trial. Failure to comply with this Rule is grounds to postpone the trial, require further pre-trial hearings, or other appropriate sanction.

- (C) If counsel for a party fails to appear at a pre-trial conference, the Court may:
- (1) rule on all motions, dilatory pleas, and exceptions in the absence of that counsel;
 - (2) declare any motions, dilatory pleas, or exceptions of the absent counsel waived;
 - (3) advance or delay the trial setting according to the convenience of the counsel present;
 - (4) pass and reset the pre-trial; or
 - (5) if the absent counsel represents the plaintiff:

- (i) decline to set the case for trial;
- (ii) cancel a setting previously made; or
- (iii) dismiss the case for want of prosecution.

(D) Counsel appearing at the pre-trial either shall be the attorney who will try the case or shall be familiar with the case and be fully authorized to state the party's position on the law and the facts, make stipulations, and enter into settlement negotiations as trial counsel. If the Court finds that the appearing counsel is not qualified, the Court may deem that counsel for that party did not appear.

RULE 7.35

Trial Procedure

(A) Except as otherwise specified in a scheduling order or by leave of Court, a dilatory pleading, such as special exceptions or a plea in abatement, must be filed not later than 30 days before a scheduled trial date.

(B) All contested and ancillary matters are specially set. Counsel may request only one additional setting as a second setting. A second setting will be called to trial if the case with the number one setting on that date does not proceed.

(C) Except as otherwise ordered by the Court, when reporting for trial, counsel shall deliver to the Court and other counsel a witness list, exhibit list, and any motion in limine. A witness or exhibit that was not disclosed as required by this subsection may be offered at the trial only by leave of Court. Before the trial starts, counsel shall mark all exhibits and exchange them with opposing counsel so that the trial will not be delayed.

(D) Counsel intending to offer videotaped depositions or other forms of media or recordings at trial, except those offered solely for impeachment, must make the forms of media or recordings available to opposing counsel sufficiently in advance of trial so that a hearing on any objections can be held before the start of trial. Any tapes or films not so tendered will not be permitted into evidence at trial. All counsel must timely examine any tendered tapes or films and request a hearing immediately, if there are objections to the admissibility of any part of the tapes or films. Any objections not heard prior to trial are waived.

(E) Counsel shall stipulate to all facts that are not in dispute and waive formal proof as to any documents to be introduced about which there is no dispute as to authenticity.

RULE 7.36

Motion Practice

(A) Counsel is encouraged to resolve pre-trial disputes to avoid the need for judicial intervention.

(B) The Court will not set a motion for hearing unless the moving counsel certifies in the motion or in a letter filed contemporaneously with the motion that counsel conferred or attempted to confer with opposing counsel regarding the motion. The certification must conform substantially to the following:

“A conference was held on (date) with (name of opposing counsel) on the merits of this motion. Agreement could not be reached.”

"A conference was not held with (name of opposing counsel) on the merits of this motion because (explanation of inability to confer)."

(C) The Probate Auditor is responsible for scheduling the dates and times for hearings. On obtaining a date and time for a hearing, the moving counsel shall immediately notify all counsel in writing as to the date, time, and subject matter of the hearing. The moving counsel shall provide a copy of the notice to the Probate Auditor.

(D) By agreement, counsel may submit a matter for decision by the Court without a hearing. The Court should be advised in writing when this procedure is desired.

(E) When requesting a hearing on a motion, counsel shall inform the Court of the estimated time for the hearing. Counsel shall make a good faith estimate of the time required after consulting all parties and considering proper examination of witnesses, introduction of exhibits, and cross-examination and rebuttal of witnesses reasonably anticipated to be called by all of the parties. If the time requested is not sufficient, the Court may continue the matter as the Court's docket allows. If the Court finds that the counsel requesting the hearing acted in bad faith in misrepresenting the time required, the Court may impose appropriate sanctions, including attorneys' fees incurred by any delay in the hearing and costs and expenses for travel of witnesses and parties who are required to return at a later date as a result of the continued hearing.

RULE 7.37

Hearings Conducted by Electronic Devices

Generally, the Court does not permit telephonic hearings or hearings at which a party, witness, or counsel appears remotely. A telephonic hearing or hearing at which a party, witness, or counsel seeks to appear remotely must be pre-approved by the Court through the Probate Auditor. The requesting party shall make the request in writing to the Court and send a copy of the request to all parties. The party requesting the telephonic or remotely-attended hearing shall coordinate and facilitate all connections and communications before making the request. The party requesting the telephonic or remotely-attended hearing shall ensure the ability of the court reporter to take an accurate record of the proceeding. The Court will not permit a telephonic or remotely-attended hearing to be conducted through the use of a cellular telephone or other cellular device. At the Court's discretion, the Court may terminate a telephonically or remotely-attended hearing and continue the hearing at a later date in the presence of the Court.

RULE 7.38

Deposition Guidelines

(A) The Court adopts these guidelines to promote uniformity and save time and expense resulting from discovery disputes. The Court encourages counsel to strive for agreement on discovery matters. Absent agreement, counsel may submit discovery disputes for Court resolution by filing a proper motion. The Court may require a hearing before acting on a motion relating to a discovery dispute.

(B) The party initiating a deposition may elect to take the deposition orally or on written questions and all counsel may elect to cross-examine orally or on written questions.

(C) Before noticing an oral deposition, the attorney initiating an oral deposition shall attempt to confer with all counsel to reach an agreement as to date, time, place, and materials to be furnished at the deposition. Failure to make an adequate attempt to confer as required by this subsection is grounds to quash the deposition. A notice of deposition must describe the efforts to reach agreement in a statement that conforms substantially to the following:

“A conference was held (or attempted) with opposing counsel to agree on a date, time, place, and materials to be furnished at the deposition. Agreement could not be reached (or counsel did not respond) and the deposition is being taken pursuant to this notice (or agreement was reached and this notice complies with the agreement).”

(D) Notice of less than 10 days under Tex. R. Civ. P. 21a and 202.3(a) is presumed to be unreasonable.

(E) A deposition may be noticed in:

- (1) the county of the witness's residence or the county where the witness is employed or regularly transacts business in person;
- (2) the county of suit if the witness is a party or a person designated by a party under Tex. R. Civ. P. 199.2(b)(1);
- (3) the county where the witness was served with the subpoena, or within 150 miles of the place of service, if the witness is not a resident of Texas or is a transient person; or

If it is impossible to file such a pleading before it is presented to the Court, the presenting party shall file the pleading as soon as possible and the Clerk notified of all actions taken by the Court.

(B) A party requesting relief ex parte shall notify all parties of the intent to present the request for relief to the Court ex parte. The requesting counsel must provide notice to all parties not later than two hours before the time the counsel intends to present the request ex parte and state in the notice the time and place the request will be presented. An application for relief ex parte must include a certificate by counsel that states whether the party against whom relief is being sought is represented by counsel in the matter that is the basis of the relief sought and, if so, the name, address, and telephone number of that counsel.
